

Summer Reading Assignment
AP Language and Composition
Timothy Christian School

Summer assignments must be completed to be turned in on the first day of AP Language class.

- A. Students who have been accepted to the course, based on satisfactory response to their PREP ESSAY and the administration's recommendation, should choose one book from any of the categories listed in the AP Reading List.

- B. After thoroughly reading the text, students are expected to create a double-entry journal of at least 20 quotations, with strong analytical commentary, which is expected to be submitted to the AP Professor during the first week of the course. (See instructions and examples of double entry journals.)

- C. Additionally, during the FIRST MARKING PERIOD, students will be expected to present on their summer readings.
