

Titles from Open Response Questions

The AP[®] English Literature exam poses an open response question each year. With each writing prompt, several plays and novels are suggested for students to write about, but they are not limited to those choices. Every title and the year which it was suggested is tracked here to help you make use of those writing prompts, and to help AP[®] Lit teachers choose novels and plays to make curriculum and reading list choices.

Note: The 2020 exam did not have an open response question.

(Read summaries of each book you plan to read before you select your material, since many selections do not reflect the views of Christians nor is the content endorsed by TCS. Consider looking at online reviews on Common Sense Media, Goodreads, or other sites with book reviews.)

Note: Only authors were recommended in early years, not specific titles.
